Greetings from the Garnet Herald,

I hope this letter finds you well this season. The short time allowed for commentary on this letter will enable us to clear all but a few challenging submissions from our desks. We look forward to starting the New Year with a fresh crop of submissions. Yours in service, Christopher.

Greetings for the Cornelian Herald,

My family and I join together to wish each of you a most joyous Holiday Season! Though winter winds chill and long nights darken, may your hearths burn warmly, and your hearts glow brightly. ~Alheydis

It is the intent of the Æthelmearc College of Heraldry that the following items be considered for registration. Unless noted otherwise, submitters will accept any changes.

1. Tancred of Thescorre – New Name

The name is intended to be masculine. The submitter will accept all changes, and cares most about sound and Norman language and culture of the 11th-13th century. The submitter is not requesting authenticity.

Tancred - Withycombe, 3rd ed., p. 275, s.n. Tancred, describes <Tancred> as the Norman French spelling.

Dauzat, Dictionnaire des Noms de Famille et Prenoms de France, p. 562, s.n. Tancrede, describes the name as an ancient baptismal name of German origin, a Norman name (11th c.).

Thescorre – SCA group name registered as the Barony of Thescorre “at some point”, according to the online Armorial.

Herald of record: none

2. Wilhelm Smydele von Soelinge – Resubmitted Device

Argent, a double-horned anvil sable within a bordure vert.

His name was registered in April of 2004.

His previous device submission, Argent, a griffin sergeant gules, winged sable, haloed Or, maintaining a rapier, a bordure sable, was returned for conflict (LoR Æ87).

Herald of record: Matilda Bosvyle
